

Reminder: Homebuyer Education

News Reminder

U.S. Bank Home Mortgage has had several files come in for purchase where lenders have not required borrowers to take the required and/or permissible pre-closing homebuyer education course.

This Bulletin is a reminder to Lenders that Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac both have guidelines regarding pre-close homebuyer education on all of their community lending products, including the Fannie Mae HFA Preferred Product, and the Freddie Mac Home Possible Advantage for HFA product.

The Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac AUS systems generally will provide a message that helps to guide the lender through their Home Buyer educational requirements.

In some cases the HFA that you have registered your loan with may not have a requirement for pre-closing homebuyer education. Even if the HFA does not require Home Buyer Education, lenders MUST follow the requirements of Fannie Mae or Freddie Mac as communicated in their selling guidelines.

When pre-closing homebuyer education is required but not obtained by lenders, loans are not saleable to Fannie Mae or Freddie Mac, therefore U.S. Bank Home Mortgage will not be able to purchase these loans.
