

2013-14 Homeownership Education, Counseling and Training (HECAT) Awards Announced

More than $1.4 million awarded to deliver comprehensive homebuyer training to more than 12,300 Minnesotans

The HECAT fund provides yearly financial support for comprehensive homebuyer training. This programming supports education and counseling in a variety of areas, including: in-person homebuyer education and counseling, home equity conversion counseling, and foreclosure prevention counseling.

The total amount of funding available for the 2013-2014 HECAT year is $1.4 million with contributions of $906,020 from Minnesota Housing and $500,000 from the Minnesota Homeownership Center and the Greater Minnesota Housing Fund. Thirty-nine proposals were received this funding round, requesting $2.15 million.
