IMPORTANT NOTICE REGARDING TAX CERTIFICATION DOCUMENTATION AND POTENTIAL WITHHOLDING:

Pursuant to U.S. federal tax laws, you have a duty to provide the required type of tax certification form to anyone making a payment to you that could constitute income or gross proceeds reportable to you. That tax certification documentation must be received by the Paying Agent (which includes the term "Withholding Agent" if you are a Nonresident Alien Individual or Foreign Entity) on or before the date of the payment, or the date on which the transaction is reportable on either IRS Form 1099 or IRS Form 1042-S even if no payment is made at that time. If you do not provide a valid tax certification form as required, the Paying Agent will be required to apply the maximum amount of withholding on that reportable payment. For example, if you are a U.S. taxpayer and do not provide a Form W-9 by the effective date of a merger, the trade date of a sale, the maturity date for a bond, or the payment date for interest or dividends, the Paying Agent is required to apply 28% backup withholding to the amount reportable as gross proceeds on a Form 1099-B, the interest amount reportable on a Form 1099-INT or the dividend amount reportable on a Form 1099-DIV. If you are a foreign person or entity, you are required to provide the applicable type of IRS Form W-8 by those aforementioned dates, and failure to do so can result in a 30% withholding rate being applied to the amount of the payment reportable on IRS Form 1042-S.
