We have included additional guidance to the 180-day statement about allegations of inappropriate or improper behavior. Important notice: The guidance applies only to those housing programs or types of assistance programs that do not currently have an established process for investigating allegations.

COVID-19 Supplemental Payment (CSP) Requests

July 23, 2020, HUD's Office of Housing published Notice 2020-05, (HUD 52671-E), which updated the During this time, owners or agents may request CSPs to offset COVID-19 related costs. CSPs are available for up to 120 days following the end of July 31, 2020.

The Notice is applicable to Project-based Section 8 properties, among other property types eligible for CSPs. Please contact your assigned TRACS team member with any questions related to COVID-19 Special Claims.

Additional types of costs may be eligible and new criteria for costs have been added for CSPs.

Please clearly mark claims with COVID-19. The day after tenant move-out will be counted as a 60-day period. The day after tenant move-out minus any days where unit is occupied by the tenant or after September 30, 2020, will be considered for Tier II and Tier III Exceptional Cost Payments.

Important COVID-19 Updates for Section 8 and Section 811 Project Rental Assistance (PRA) Properties

On July 23, 2020, HUD's Office of Housing published Notice 2020-05 (HUD 52671-E), which updated the Additional types of costs may be eligible and new criteria for costs have been added for CSPs.

Please clearly mark claims with COVID-19. The day after tenant move-out will be counted as a 60-day period. The day after tenant move-out minus any days where unit is occupied by the tenant or after September 30, 2020, will be considered for Tier II and Tier III Exceptional Cost Payments.

The Notice is applicable to Project-based Section 8 properties, among other property types eligible for CSPs. Please contact your assigned TRACS team member with any questions related to COVID-19 Special Claims.

eligibility and changes at 400 Wabasha Street North Suite 400

Important COVID-19 Updates for Section 8 and Section 811 Project Rental Assistance (PRA) Properties

On July 23, 2020, HUD's Office of Housing published Notice 2020-05 (HUD 52671-E), which updated the Additional types of costs may be eligible and new criteria for costs have been added for CSPs.

Please clearly mark claims with COVID-19. The day after tenant move-out will be counted as a 60-day period. The day after tenant move-out minus any days where unit is occupied by the tenant or after September 30, 2020, will be considered for Tier II and Tier III Exceptional Cost Payments.

The Notice is applicable to Project-based Section 8 properties, among other property types eligible for CSPs. Please contact your assigned TRACS team member with any questions related to COVID-19 Special Claims.