Many Minnesotans facing housing instability.

Thank you for your help in sharing the news that this housing assistance is available to the

We need your help spreading the word about this new program!

Program but may be eligible to apply for assistance with certain utility expenses.

renters and homeowners. Local administrators will review applications from individuals and help prevent eviction, prevent homelessness, and maintain housing stability for eligible by COVID-19. The COVID-19 Housing Assistance Program is now

-American Indian Alaskan Native, and Asian American

Unemployment Income

The COVID-19 Housing Assistance Program has

The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) recently released several important COVID-19 related multifamily housing updates. Please read the information below on this new program and resources that you can use to share information with households that may be eligible and interested in applying.

Requirements for Face Covering and Masks

The COVID-19 Housing Assistance Program Has Launched!

The COVID-19 Housing Assistance Program is now accepting applications from individuals and families impacted by COVID-19. The COVID-19 Housing Assistance Program (COVID-19 HAP) provides

The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) recently released several important COVID-19 related multifamily housing updates. Please read the information below on this new program and resources that you can use to share information with households that may be eligible and interested in applying.

We are also excited to share that the COVID-19 Housing Assistance Program is now open in several OWRPA regions.

The information below is from this new program and resources that you can use to share information with households that may be eligible and interested in applying.

Unemployment Income

We are also excited to share that the COVID-19 Housing Assistance Program is now open in several OWRPA regions.

The information below is from this new program and resources that you can use to share information with households that may be eligible and interested in applying.

We are also excited to share that the COVID-19 Housing Assistance Program is now open in several OWRPA regions.

The information below is from this new program and resources that you can use to share information with households that may be eligible and interested in applying.