Funding Available:

Enhanced Financial Capacity Homeownership (Homeownership Capacity) Program

Minnesota Housing is releasing the Application for Funding for the Homeownership Capacity Program. The Homeownership Capacity Program provides resources to eligible organizations that deliver enhanced financial education and one-on-one financial coaching to Black, Indigenous, and People of Color and low-income households with a goal of homeownership.

The Application for Funding is now available for the Homeownership Capacity 2021-2023 grant contract period. All application materials are available on Minnesota Housing's website and in the Homeownership Capacity Application for Funding Overview, Questions and Tips.

Applications must be submitted no later than 3:00 p.m. on June 2, 2021.

A technical assistance webinar is scheduled for Thursday, May 6 from 10:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. to review the application in detail. All interested applicants are strongly encouraged to attend. Register now.

Please forward this information to other organizations that may be interested.
