Summary of engagement terms

• Our audit procedures are designed to do the following:
  - Provide reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free of material misstatement.
  - Satisfy the requirements of Government Auditing Standards.
  - Address management’s initial selection of, and changes in, significant accounting policies or their application; methods used to account for significant unusual transactions; and the effect of significant accounting policies in emerging areas.
  - Focus on accounting estimates that are particularly sensitive to the financial statements based on their significance and level of management judgment.
  - Communicate any disagreements with management about matters that could be significant to the financial statements.

  − Alert the Audit Committee of any significant errors, fraud or illegal acts identified during our audits.
  − Communicate adjustments, whether or not recorded by Minnesota Housing, that could, either individually or in the aggregate, have a significant effect on the Minnesota Housing’s financial reporting process.
  − Communicate significant deficiencies and material weaknesses identified through our review of internal control over financial reporting.

• We will make the Audit Committee aware of significant written communications between RSM US LLP and Minnesota Housing during the year.

• We do not anticipate any scope limitations, which would cause us to qualify our audit opinions.

• Minnesota Housing will be considered to be a low-risk auditee for purposes of the performance of the Uniform Guidance audit.
Auditor’s independence

Commitment to independence

- RSM US LLP employs a comprehensive, multifaceted approach to maintaining independence.
